near by. It is about 18 inches long and 7 inches wide and weighs 380 pounds."

ficiated. The bride is a relative of the groom's former wife.

Mr. Herbert Cox is now general agent of the Illinois Life Insurance Company. His headquarters will be

BALDHEADED CLUB.

Meeting Held in Ex-President Kelly's Fine Office.

Col. Bamberger Opens Negotiations With the Shah of Persia For Second Hand Wives.

The Bald-headed Club met by invitation Saturday night in the new and luxuriously furnished apartments of Col. Walter Kelly, over the First National Bank. The meeting was the first held for several months and was in the nature of a reunion for the winter season.

Nearly all of the old members were present and a number of new applications for membership were on the secretary's desk. Col. Lem McKee was conspicuous among the early arrivals and held quite an ovation in receiving congratulations over the recent triumph he scored as the Fat Lady in the Elks' circus.
The Colonel still wore the beautiful dimples in his cheeks that caused such a sensation at the circus. He no longer wears the luxuriant blonde tresses that caused him to be mistaken for "The Girl with the Auburn Hair."

Col. Bill Howell, after securing a chew of Col. Eggleton's best tobacco, sat down on the sofa and claimed the distinction of being the first person to expectorate on Col. Kelly's Axiomat. Col. Howell said he considered himself fortunate to be on hand. Pierceport Morgan, Russell Sage, Teddy Roosevelt and himself had all been under the weather for some time and while Teddy was able to shoot off his gun in Mississippi and his mouth at Memphis, he was himself hardly able to be about.

One by one the Colonels came in until the spacious rooms were filled with enthusiastic Knights of the Shining Plate.

Ex-President Kelly was by general consent accorded the honor of presiding and did so with his old time grace and dignity.

Col. Bill Bamberger, who has not yet succeeded in acquiring a wife, asked that a committee be appointed to investigate the report that the Shah of Persia had recently reduced to ranks 1,640 of his 1,700 wives. The Colonel said he would shortly lay in a supply of Persian rugs and if the report was true he would try to arrange to give one divorced queen with each purchase of a rug. In this way he thought Col. Ed Blakemore, Col. Bob Wool-drige and other self-worn bachelors could be worked off the matrimonial market. President Kelly appointed on the committee Colo.
Bamberger, Blakemore and Wool-drige.

Col. Henry Abernathy made a patriotic speech advocating a proposition to have the club petition President Roosevelt to enforce the Monroe doctrine in Venezuela's interest.

Col. Bob Wooldrige asked which Monroe it was who was to be given such prominence—Jack or Frank.
He added: "Jack Monroe's speciality is White Wyandotte chickens and Frank Monroe's hobby is printing, and I don't see how either of them could cut much ice in a warm country like Venezuela."

Col. Chess Pyle said it ought to be against the law for one man to monopolize so much information as Col. Wooldrige seemed to possess.
But he added, "I suppose in these times of trusts and monopolies, there is no way to prevent it."

Col. Wooldrige acknowledged the compliment by exposing his teeth.
Col. Walter Southall called attention to the fact that the next meeting would be the time for the regular annual election, and said he hoped there would be none of the usual excitement and bitterness growing out of those events. This

Rings, but in Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass, Opera Glasses, Fine Umbrellas, Clocks, Novelties, Etc., we can supply

M. D. KELLY, Hopkinsville, Ky.

had been caused by letting young fellows run for President who were anxious to advertise themselves for some selfish reason. He moved that hereafter none but married men be allowed to hold the office of President. Col. Wooldrige and Col.
Bamberger both violently opposed this motion, which was finally tabled.

Col. J. H. Eggleton said he thought the club owed it to Col.
Lem McKee to back him good and strong in the Kentuckian's Popular Lady Contest. He certainly made the most popular lady at the circus last fall.

Col. Ira Smith called attention to the fact that the Smith family would have a building at the St. Louis World's Fair, and said he thought the bald headed men of the country ought to take steps to secure a building of their own. The suggestion met with much favor, but the matter was postponed until the next meeting.

The club then adjourned.

row. The wedding will take place

Brown, who formerly lived near Crofton. Rev. J. E. King, of Fairview, will be the officiating minister.

as auctioneer.

THE DISTRICT PRIMARY.

The calling of a primary election in the third district to nominate candidates for circuit judge and commonwealth's attorney, is not without party authority, as was the case in calling a state primary.
The party rules permit this method of making district nominations, and where the candidates ask for it and voluntarily put up the money to pay the expenses, there is no serious objection to it. But in calling the district primary Saturday, no attention was paid to the preferences of a majority of the candidates, nor to the willingness of the parties in interest to be taxed. The committee itself had very questionable authority. Mr. Green, of Christian, and Mr. Thompson, of Calloway, two of the three members whose votes settled the matter, are reputed to be candidates for office, one for prison commissioner and the other for State senator. If this be true, they are disqualified from The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Sent for list of testimonials. Address

Get the Most

Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it.
It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, signs of nervous headache, and disagreeable belch-without authority to act. Moreover, the assessment of $900 is a useless hold-up of the candidates, if Chairman Young's statement is correct that the entire cost of a State primary for thirty or more candidates will be $8 to the precinct. There are about 60 precincts in the third district and the cost of the state primary is to be $480, and yet the local candidates are to be taxed more than $13 to the precinct for the blessed privilege of getting their names on the machine ballot, in a primary, the expenses of which are already provided for. Under any construction of the party law, with equity as an object, the local candidates should be required to pay only a fair proportion of the $480 already set aside for holding the primary in their district, or at most one-half. The action in this case gives color to the charge that local candidates, wherever possible, are to be required to defray the expenses of the state primary and leave the assessments of certain state candidates, it may be, bound to the committee by ropes of sand.

It was decided to assess the candidates $800, for the privilege of going into the proposed State primary. It is said that seven of the nine prospective candidates requested the committee to call a pro rata precinct convention.Committee Meacham filed his appeal from Judge Cantrill's decision in the primary injunction case Friday and his counsel will make a motion today for its advancement on the docket. No agreement has been reached that it may be advanced, and the committee's attorneys may oppose the motion, as it is believed they are not very confident that Judge Cantrill will be affirmed.A man named Fieto, believed to be insane, fired a pistol at one of the carriages in the royal procession of King Alfonso, of Spain, Saturday. He was arrested and said he wanted to shoot at the King, but he wanted to kill one of the dukes with him.Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by C. K. Wylie, Remarkable Cure of Croup.

A LITTLE BOY'S LIFE SAVED.
I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough.
I bought a bottle of it from A. J.
Steele of Godwin, S. D., and when I got home with the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave him medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to put a plegion out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Jest. DEMOST, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by C. K.

Off."Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the pains in the chest in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail, says James Prendergast, merchant, Annapolis Bay, Jamaica, near the Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by DR. POWELL'S BANQUET.

List of Speakers Who Will Deliver Addresses.

Arrangements have been about completed for the ninth annual banquet of the Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, pastor of the First Christian church at Fourth and Walnut Streets. This occasion, Dr. Powell says, is the pioneer of "the annual banquet" in Louisville, and certainly the annual church banquet. This year the banquet will be held January 22, and for oratory good fellowship and merriment will, no doubt, be as notable as any of its predecessors. The five speakers who have accepted Dr. Powell's invitation to address his guests, and the subjects upon which they will be heard, are as follows:

The Rev. Dr. J. Kinsey Smith, pastor of the Fourth-avenue Presbyterian church, "Brickbats and Bouquets." Mr. A. Y. Ford, managing editor of the Courier-Journal, "1903 a Prophecy."

Gen. Basil W. Duke, "Boots and Saddles."

Chas. M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, "The Town and the City."

Mr. C. H. Gibson, "The Trust."—Courier-Journal.

Simple Colds.

FRON BUS DRIVER

To Speaker in Legislature Is Col. Tyson's Record.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 8.—From bus driver in North Carolina, some 25 years since, to speaker of the Lower Branch of the Tennessee Legislature, is the remarkable rise in life of Colonel L. D. Tyson, who was selected to-day at the Democratic caucus at Nashville. He secured an appointment to West Point and graduated with honors. He rose gradually to a Captaincy in the army, and was Colonel in the Sixth Immunes during the Spanish-American war.

Don't Worry.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Annual Election.

WAS ASSAULTED.

Judge Robbins Used His Pen Knife.

Pulaski, Ky., Jan. 8.—At Wickliffe, Ky., R. B. Platt, of Clinton, went to the room of Judge J. E. Robbins, who was stopping at the hotel, and is alleged to have assaulted him. Platt is said to have been drinking and to have called the Judge a vile name and struck him.

Judge Robbins thereupon drew a small knife and cut Platt upon the face and twice on the throat. The knife blade was broken by contact with Platt's collarbone. The noise of the scuffle was heard below and the men were separated by Judge Robbins' friends. The Judge was not hurt and Platt's injuries are not serious.

Cut this out and take it to Wyly's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They also cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness and headache.

The Five Noble P's.

PUSH—The quality in man which urges him forward, and gives him the ability to urge anything forward, no matter what it be, is called push. This the successful poultry raiser must possess to some degree at least; the more he has of it the better he is off.

Push gets him up before daylight and throughout the day forces him to urge his business for all it is worth. And, being tired from his day's exertion, he takes a good night's rest, and is well prepared the next morning for another day's activity.

It cannot be bought, borrowed, nor stolen; but it can be acquired; get it.

PUNCTUALITY—Have a certain time for doing things.
Be on time. Let order prevail.
Feed at a certain time each day and have a special time for gathering the eggs. Select certain fixed days to give everything a thorough cleansing, and live up to it. Punctuality brings a man to the right place at the right time, and keeps him there until the proper time arrives for him to depart. It is an essential quality and one worthy of cultivation and practice.

PERSEVERANCE—How many failures there have been in the poultry business, and most of them have been caused by a lack of perseverance, or as it is called stick-to-it-iveness.
Perseverance is that quality in man, by virtue of which he sticks to a thing, through thick or thin, o'er rough and smooth, and in failure as well as in success. This he does without a step backward, until success crowns his efforts and fortune smiles upon him, and takes him as her own.

Persevere as a poultryman and you will be successful as a poultry-man.

PRINCIPAL—Show me the man without principal, and I will show you a dishonest man. It is as the conscience. If conscience tells us how to do right principal certainly urges us to do it.

The man without principal, no matter who he is, where he lives, or what he does, is as the rud-derless ship, near the towering crags, with no beacon in sight.
One lurch and it sink to rise no more.

The honest man possesses principle, he will not defraud a customer, he will do exactly as he agrees, and will do it to the best of his ability.

The unprincipled man should be shunned and discarded by all.
PLUCK:

And when we see a plucky man
We step out of the way,
And watch him pass with steady stride
No matter what we say.

Practice pluck to get good luck. Yes, we all bow to the plucky person. No matter how many difficulties an undertaking presents, he who possesses pluck has no fear of them, but with grit, grace and gumption, he goes at it, hews down the giant trees which bar his progress, and unaided and unassisted by others, reaches his goal.

The plucky poultryman cares naught for difficulties, but gets there just the same.
If any of those who peruse this article are fortunate enough to possess the five noble P's: Push, Punctuality, Perseverance, Principle and Pluck, I congratulate them.—LEWIS E. TAYLOR, Conesus, N. Y., in American Poultry Advocate.

LED TAPE IN RUSSIA.

Wood & Sealant Believed Only Cleric of the East.

Through the possession of a wonderful tape, which was recently found in a room in Russia.
Among them was the soldier who was on guard at the gate leading to the magazine.

One of his arms was shattered and there was also an ugly wound in his chest. Still, though on the verge of fainting, he remained steadfastly at his post.

There his colonel saw him and said:
"What are you doing here? Don't you see that the magazine has been blown up and that there is nothing for you to guard? You look half dead, and I order you to go at once to the hospital."

"Colonel," was the reply, "I cannot do this. My sergeant instructed me to stay here."

"But your sergeant has been killed," demonstrated the colonel.
"That does not concern me," said the soldier. "There are only two persons who can relieve me from duty—my sergeant and my superior."

Seeing that the man was determined to remain on duty until relieved, the colonel telegraphed the fact to the minister of war and the latter at once laid the matter before the czar, with the result that the latter sent a dispatch relieving the soldier of duty and at the same time announced his intention of conferring on him a gold medal and a decoration.

Not until this dispatch was handed to the soldier did he consent to go to the hospital. He had then been 14 hours on duty.—Exchange.

LETTA AND HER CURLS.

Bottoms Flurry, as usual, brings grief to a young man.

In a Wisconsin town were two young girls who were fast friends and had but one jealousy between them.
The older of the two, says the Milwaukee Sentinel, had hair just the common length, while the younger had long brown tresses that touched near the bottom of her dress. Night and day Letta of the sunny locks considered over the situation and tried various means to coax and impress up her hair the property of thrift. But all in vain. As time sped on, her parents moved to Milwaukee, and as they were sitting and packing Letta found in an old bureau nothing less than a bunch of curls that her mother had worn in her girlhood. Comparison proved them to be the exact color.

"Now," said the young leader of fashion, "I will be just swell the first day at school."

Letta braided her hair carefully and tied the curls at the end with a fresh ribbon.

When recess came the girls were ranged up in a row for pull-away, and as all went flying across the schoolyard a spry little maiden caught the curls as they sped by her, and lo! they stayed with her while their owner went straight to the goal.

Curious Marriage Certificate.

At a wedding at Earlestown Baptist church, recently, it was noticed when the certificate of marriage was made out that the name "Thomas" appeared on the document no fewer than nine times. Both the bride and bridegroom were named Thomas, and of course, their parents also. The minister's name was Thomas, and the register also signed with the word Thomas. It was, indeed, a gathering of Thomases.

"A THOROUGHBREED TRAMP."

This Popular Production Booked for Next Monday Night.

Manager Holland has secured an engagement of the popular and laughable comedy drama, "A Thoroughbred Tramp," which has won such wide popularity over the country, and will be seen at the opera house next Monday night, January 19th. Concerning the play a Los Angeles, Cal., exchange has the following to say:

"Tattered and torn and tough the 'Thoroughbred Tramp' came into Los Angeles on a handcar last night and took the Burbank theater by storm. T. Rush Thompson, P. B., (professional bump) 'a per-sonalistic pedantic pedestrian,' who belongs to the 'Society for Keeping Out of Work,' is, when off the stage, a respectable, good-looking citizen, who answers to the name of John Leach, but when he makes his appearance as a tramp behind the footlights a Pinkerton detective would not recognize him. Niner's make-up is splendid and his acting is equally as good. He succeeded in keeping the house, which was crowded until there was not even standing room, in almost constant laughter, and in adding to his popularity by getting the best on numerous occasions of the very villainous villain, Frederick Lawrence, who is portrayed by W. B. Fredericks. The only fault to be found with Mr. Fredericks is that he makes his villainy too evident, although he has a hard part for the 'heartless rascal,' as he is designated on the program, appeals neither to the gallery nor to the pit. The scene of the plot—and there really is a plot worth following—is laid in a Colorado town. The play is full of thrilling as well as laughable situations, and the audience was ready to applaud both and did. Besides the tramp and the villain, the other principal characters are: Edward Temple, a Colorado miner, Harry Morton; Miss Mabel Hathaway, daughter of Old Socky, Margaret Fleetwood; Nellie Hathaway, her cousin; Helen Braly; Harriet Trenton, Mary L. Braly; Otto Hackmeyer, station agent; Martin Franklyn; Judge Gilpin; justices of the peace, Clyde Tressell; Hop Li, Fred Finch."

The "Thoroughbred Tramp" will hold the boards at Holland's Opera House next Monday night, January 19th. Prices of admission, 25c, 35c and 50c.

WILL BE HERE.

At Holland's Opera House, Friday Jan. 16.

Concerning Mr. Doize and Miss Mamie Lorimer, who will appear at Holland's Opera House, Friday night, Jan. 16, the Metropolis, Ill., Herald says: "It is with pleasure we are able to announce that Mr. Edouard Doize and Miss Mamie Lorimer will again appear as Romeo and Juliet before a Metropolis audience. Managers Whyers & Quante, of the Music Hall, have signed the attraction for a return date, and the company will present the elaborate production Thursday night."

"This company needs no word of recommendation to those of our people who attend the performance Friday night. All present pronounced it complete and finished in every detail and the company of players the most evenly balanced that has appeared here this season."

"The work of Mr. Doize and Miss Lorimer in the title roles was excellent and all the other characters were handled in like manner by the various members of the company."

"There should, and no doubt will, be a large attendance at the return presentation Thursday night."

Morgan's Escape.

(FROM GLENN'S GRAPHIC.)

We had announced our intention to commence with this week's issue of The Graphic, the publication of the first chapter of the Escape of Morgan and his men from the Columbus, Ohio, penitentiary, in November 1861. This is to be followed up week after week until the whole story shall be told. The readers of The Graphic may feel some disappointment when they learn that the first chapter of this interesting story will not appear until Thursday, the 5th day of February.

On account of there being already such a demand for The Graphic, not only from this portion of the state but from elsewhere, we have concluded to wait three weeks so as to give the people at large a chance to subscribe at the very first issue of these articles, as we shall not issue many extra copies. From the inquiries that are coming in from elsewhere, we are satisfied that there are thousands who are not now subscribers to The Graphic who are going to want the paper during the time these articles are run, if no longer.

We feel safe in promising to our readers and to the public in general, the most interesting reading that has appeared in any Kentucky paper for many a day. There is not a man, woman or child who knows Captain Hockersmith, who does not know that he is the very soul of honor, that he is truthful and reliable and that what he may say in these articles is the truth and nothing but the truth.

Of the men who were engaged in that wonderful and thrilling escape, there are but two now living, Captain Jake Bennett, and Captain Hockersmith. As Captain Hockersmith, planned and executed that escape, there has never been any one who was better able to tell that tale than the man who led Morgan and his men from the penitentiary that rainy night in November nearly forty years ago.

There have been a number of magazine articles written and published which claimed to be authentic, in reference to that escape from the Columbus penitentiary. The authors have been well paid for the same, yet as a general thing the writers knew but very little of the facts connected with the escape.

Captain Hockersmith, now writes, not for fame, not for money, but because he wants the people, his friends, to know the whole history and further it is done at the urgent solicitation of his best friend, the editor of The Graphic. We give it to the world well knowing that every word and every statement therein is as true as gospel preaching. Look for the beginning of this story on the 5th of February. It will be run week after week and will perhaps last for three months. With the present form of The Graphic, the papers can be laid aside and the reader will have at the completion of the story, a complete history of this important event. Subscribe now.

DRAMATIC OFFERING

That Should Appeal to Lovers of Stage Art.

Theater-goers are awaiting with keen interest and anticipation the production at Holland's Opera House this evening of "Camille" by the Vendome Stock Company, in which Miss Jessie Bonstelle, the leading woman, and Mr. Wilson Hummel, the new comedian, make their first appearance.

"Camille," as presented by the Vendome Stock Company, will be a fine dramatic offering that ought to appeal to every lover of good stage art. When the management decided to produce the piece they determined to spare no expense, and it is a certainty that as a scenic production the play will be the equal of any this season's offerings by this company, and when this is added there is no other assurance of its excellence necessary.

Another Fine Volume.

Standard books are ever welcome when they come to us in forms and bindings representing all the embellishments of the art of bookmaking. Such a book is World's Warship, published by The Dominion Company, Chicago, a copy of which has just come to our desk. The contents are well arranged, the illustrations are fine, the print is clear and neat and the binding is superb. The Dominion Company is forging ahead as the leading western publishing house making a specialty of fine subscription books. Having salespeople in nearly every nook of the country, the company enjoys a large and growing trade. As this company has a known reputation for liberality towards its agents and fair treatment of them, an agency in this community for the above book, or some other published by this company, would be a source of considerable profit to the one fortunate enough to secure it. Interested readers should write the company for full particulars.

UNIQUE MEASURE

To Prohibit Accumulation of Private Fortunes.

One of the most unique measures introduced in the House for a long time was offered by Representative Griffiths, Democrat, of Indiana. It provides for an amendment to the constitution so as to prohibit the accumulation of a private fortune exceeding $10,000, and directs that any accumulation in excess of that amount shall be forfeited to the Federal Government. Mr. Griffiths does not claim to be the author of the resolution, but explained that he introduced it by request.

In Memorial.

The funeral services of Mr. S. H. Claggett occurred at the 9th Street Presbyterian church, of which church Mr. Claggett had for many years been a member and communicant. The pastor, Rev. W. L. Nourse was assisted by the pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. Wyatt. Mr. Claggett was widely known as one of the most energetic, courageous and successful farmers in Christian county and in face of those untoward influences which have so seriously impeded the farmers success in recent years, he has steadily prosecuted his work with increasing prosperity. He has demonstrated what industry, attention and persistent courage can accomplish on the farm. Early in his residence in this county he lost his wife, who was in the highest sense a helpmeet to him and was left with a family of sons and daughters. One son and daughter he lost, but those left in their standing character, bear testimony to their father's care and fidelity. No young men of the county have better promise of success than his sons. His daughter was ever a sweet solace to her father. W. L. Nourse.
